Resist Temptation

C. S. Lewis on the Difficulty of Resisting Temptation

No person knows how bad he/she is till they have tried very hard to be good. A silly idea is that good people do not know what temptation means. This is an obvious lie.

Only those who try to resist temptation know how strong it is. You find out the strength of an army by fighting it, not by giving in. A person who gives in to temptation after five minutes simply does not know what it would have been like an hour later.

We never find out the strength of the evil impulse inside us until we try to fight it.

Remember that no matter how we are being tempted, it is a setup by the enemy intended to bring you down. Satan will seek out your greatest weakness, need or insecurity and try to lure you with whatever you are most easily attracted to.

Be Sober, be vigilant; Because your adversary the devil walks about like roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour
1 Peter 5:8

Our adversary the devil will use confusion because he knows that confusion works.

Now the serpent was more cunning than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said to the woman, "Has God indeed said, 'You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?'"

Resist Temptation

It is no accident that the enemy first tempts us with seemingly insignificant things. He knows that each small step, toward sin or into sin, is a seed that has been planted into your soul. At first it is so tiny, so harmless, that you pay it no attention.
(It's your little secret)

But it begins to germinate, it sends out roots, it stabilizes, then one day when the setting is right, we give ourselves over to sinfulness, and it seems as if it came out of nowhere!

For from within, out of people's hearts, come evil thoughts, sexual immoralities, thefts, murders, adulteries, greed, evil actions, deceit, promiscuity, stinginess, blasphemy, pride, and foolishness. All these evil things come from within and defile a person.

Mark 7:21-23
