Matthew 18:21-22

- ▶ Forgiveness has a limit?
- ▶ Have we made our unforgiveness their identity?
- ▶ If you think you are a sensitive person, it is even more your responsibility to always live in the attitude of forgiveness.

Matthew 18:21-22

- ▶ If you have never shown forgiveness to others, how do you expect them to forgive you?
- ▶ It is not enough to acknowledge imperfection but also forgive
- ▶ It's not Seven but Seventy-Seven

Matthew 18:23-35

- ▶ What is a parable?
- ▶ The heart problem
- ▶ Who here is good at Math?

Matthew 18:23-35

- ▶ The parable
- ▶ Mesopotamia
- ▶ Debt at church higher than debt outside
- ▶ Luke 23 : 33 – 35
- ▶ Your salvation

Application: Are we faking our love for Christ?

If Christ has fully forgiven us, our heart is to fully forgive the ones that offend us. If we do not fully forgive, we do not understand the forgiveness that God has given us. We are in many ways faking our forgiveness and in turn our love for Christ.

Conclusion

- ▶ The citizen's heart is meant to be like the king's heart.
- ▶ Kingdom of God is not a paradise.
- ▶ There is no limit to forgiveness.
- ▶ Forgiveness is about heartfelt forgiveness.
- ▶ Your opportunity to forgive today.
