

The word through, is indicative of the fact that the waters, the rivers, and the fire may be starting points, but they are never stopping points. Our destination should never be the waters, the rivers, or the fire; again, metaphors for trials and tribulations.

“When you go through deep waters and great trouble, I will be with you. When you go through rivers of difficulty, you will not drown! When you walk through the fire of oppression, you will not be burned up—the flames will not consume you.” Isaiah 43:2 TLB

Despite What I Go Through, God Will Make A Way

ENDURE

For the believer, endure means:

- 1) to bear up under
- 2) to remain under
- 3) to be strong or firm
- 4) to persevere

Isaiah 39 (TLB)

Soon afterwards, the king of Babylon (Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan) sent Hezekiah a present and his best wishes, for he had heard that Hezekiah had been very sick and now was well again. ² Hezekiah appreciated this and took the envoys from Babylon on a tour of the palace, showing them his treasure-house full of silver, gold, spices, and perfumes. He took them into his jewel rooms, too, and opened to them all his treasures—everything.³ Then Isaiah the prophet came to the king and said, “What did they say? Where are they from?” “From far away in Babylon,” Hezekiah replied.⁴ “How much have they seen?” asked Isaiah. And Hezekiah replied, “I showed them everything I own, all my priceless treasures.”⁵ Then Isaiah said to him, “Listen to this message from the Lord Almighty:⁶ “The time is coming when everything you have—all the treasures stored up by your fathers—will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left. ⁷ And some of your own sons will become slaves, yes, eunuchs, in the palace of the king of Babylon.”⁸ “All right,” Hezekiah replied. “Whatever the Lord says is good. At least there will be peace during my lifetime!”

When not If

We use if to introduce a possible or unreal situation or condition.

We use when to refer to the time of a future situation or condition that we are certain of.

God Says, I Will Be With You

Isaiah 41:10 (NLT) - "Don't be afraid, for I am with you. Don't be discouraged, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you. I will hold you up with my victorious right hand."

God Says, I Will Be With You

Deuteronomy 31:6 (ESV) - "Be strong and courageous. Do not fear or be in dread of them, for it is the LORD your God who goes with you. He will not leave you or forsake you."

God Says, I Will Be With You

Psalm 23:4 (KJV) - "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me."

Isaiah 43:1 (NKJV)

“Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name; You are Mine.”

Ephesians 1:7 (AMP)

“In Him we have redemption [that is, our deliverance and salvation] through His blood, [which paid the penalty for our sin and resulted in] the forgiveness and complete pardon of our sin, in accordance with the riches of His grace.”

Galatians 3:13 (KJV)

“Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree.”

Galatians 4:4-5 (NASB)

“But when the fullness of the time came, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the Law, so that He might redeem those who were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption as sons.”

Colossians 1:13-14 (NLT)

“For he has rescued us from the kingdom of darkness and transferred us into the Kingdom of his dear Son, who purchased our freedom and forgave our sins.”

Romans 8:18 (KJV)

“For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.”
